THE SUBSIDIZED MAIL SERVICE.

Washington, Oct. 27.—Bids were opened by the postmaster general yesterday, under the act of March 3, 1891, providing for the proposed ocean mail service between ports of the United States and foreign ports. The postmaster general under the law is authorized to enter into contracts for a term less than ten years not more than two years. A bill authorizes for carrying the mails on American steamships. The vessels, under the law, must be American-built steamships, owned and offered by American citizens, and upon each departure from the United States. The following proportion of the crew shall be American citizens. During the first two years, one-fourth; during the next three succeeding years, one-third, and during the remaining time of the contract, one-half.

It was decided that the vessels should be constructed after the latest and most approved types with all the modern improvements. The bids were divided into four classes. The first two classes shall be of iron or steel screw steamships, capable of maintaining a speed of 20 and 15 knots an hour in ordinary weather. The third class shall be of iron or steel, capable of 14 knots an hour. The fourth class vessels may be composed of iron, steel or wood, capable of making 12 knots an hour. The vessels of the first three are to be constructed with particular reference to strength and economical conversion into auxiliary naval cruisers. Thirteen bids were received on the different routes as follows:

From Newport News to Rio, Brazil, via St. Thomas, Martinique, Barbados, Para, Pernambuco, and Bahia: The United States and Brazil Steamship Co., from January 1, 1892, $1.00 per mile on third class vessels and $1.60, per mile on first class.

From Boston to Liverpool via Queenstown, Columbia Safety Steamship Co., from October 1, 1891, for ten years, $4 per mile.

From San Francisco to Manila, touching twice each month going and returning, at San Diego, Cal., Mazatlan, San Blas, Manzanillo, Acapulco, Puerto Angel, Salina Cruz, Tonala, San Benito, Ocos, Champerico, San Jose, Antigua, Guatemala, Antigua, Corinto, San Juan, and Puerto Arenas: Pacific Mail Steamship Co., from November 1, 1891, for ten years, in vessels of the third class, $1 per mile.

From San Francisco to Hong Kong, via Yokohama: Pacific Mail Steamship Co., from November 1, 1891, for ten years, in vessels of the third class, $1 per mile and $3 per mile if vessels of the second class.

From New Orleans to Colon, touching (going and returning) at Graytown and Punta Gorda, Nicaragua, Port Limon, and Balboa, Panama, Savanna and Saint Martin in Colombia: Pacific Mail Steamship Co., from November 1, 1891, for vessels of the fourth class, $1 per mile.

From San Francisco to Manila, touching twice each month going and returning, at San Diego, Cal., Mazatlan, San Blas, Manzanillo, Acapulco, Puerto Angel, Salina Cruz, Tonala, San Benito, Ocos, Champerico, San Jose, Antigua, Guatemala, Antigua, Corinto, San Juan, and Puerto Arenas: Pacific Mail Steamship Co., from November 1, 1891, for ten years, in vessels of the third class, $1 per mile.

From San Francisco to Hong Kong, via Yokohama: Pacific Mail Steamship Co., from November 1, 1891, for ten years, in vessels of the third class, $1 per mile and $3 per mile if vessels of the second class.

The English and Chile.

The prompt action of the government in demanding indemnity and satisfaction at the hands of the Chilean government for the inexcusable outrage inflicted upon innocent American sailors in the streets of Santiago has had the effect of bringing to the front English capitalists interested in Chilean enterprises.

When we take into consideration the fact that the same capitalists have great financial and business interests in Chile, and that they have filed through the government a claim for $60,000,000 against Chile as indemnity for losses by the late insurrection, we are led to conclude that for consummate cheek and impudence these English capitalists have attained the pinnacle.

A declaration of war with Chile by the United States would seriously interfere with the business of these Englishmen, as a blockade would at once shut them off from the markets for the products of the nitrate beds, which they have secured a firmer hold upon as the result of the late insurrection. There is little doubt that the late disturbance in Chile is largely due to these capitalists, and also that the ill feeling in that country toward the United States has been worked up through these foreign agencies; and if the result of such interference be the blockading of the Chilean ports by our men-of-war, they have themselves alone to blame.

Our government is pursuing the only honorable course. Its citizens and soldiers have been wantonly murdered upon the streets of a Chilean city. These facts have been learned by due investigation. The demand for satisfaction has been made; our men-of-war have their prows directed towards the coasts of Chile; where they will enforce the demands of our government, and if these English plutocrats don't like the situation, they had better prevail upon the government of Chile, which they seem to control, to satisfy this government before the Yankee fleet reaches the shores of Chile. The time for trifling has passed and only prompt and decisive action is in order.

They Give It Up.

The tin plate lads are quiet and as gracefully as possible seeking their holes. We scarcely hear a cheer from them now. The last attempt in relation to the tin plate works at Piquin, O., took the breath out of them, and now comes Prof. James Van Allen, of Cornell University, who believed the falsehoods of free traders concerning the tin mines in California, and being himself inclined to text book free trade notions took occasion to visit the tin mines in San Bernardino county, California, known as the Temescal mines, and he reports what he saw there as follows:

I went back East proclaiming the tin miners in mine number one the kind I have known and I have spent months in the Cornwall mines. There is certainly great wealth in the Temescal mines, and I cannot comprehend how such reckless and wholesale losses have gone abroad since that malignant property. In three years the tin works of Cornwall tin will be over $1,500,000. I found 183 American laborers in and about the mines, and seven Cornishmen. The company has expended $70,000 on the mines and the miners are paid $1.00 per bottle at King & Wood's Drug Store.

The trouble of men are like false teeth; they finally get used to them.

A Sound Liver Makes a Well Man.

Are you ill? Don't be afraid to consult your physician, Sistic, Haudenschild, End Tissot, Mouth, Fort, Breath, Cited Tongue, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Hot, Dry Skin, Pain in Back and Between the Shoulders, Urnitis and Fever, &c. If you have any of these symptoms, your Liver is out of order and your body is not in proper condition. Go to Dr. H. D. Duryea, 138 Merchant Street, and get a Liver Medicine. Price, 75 cents. Sold by Sweeney & Tyler.

Since we cannot always get what we want, let us always try to like what we get.

Prof. Neil, government chemist writes: I have carefully analyzed your "Royal Ruby Port Wine," bought by me at $1.00 per bottle. I find the same absolutely pure. This wine is especially recommended for its health restoring and building up properties; it strengthens the weak and restores lost vitality.

While I was at the mines over $50,000 worth of new stamps and concentrators arrived, and as much more is on the way to Tennessee. The company has calls from all parts of the country for block tin. When the new concentrators are put in place next week the duly product will be worth $1700.

Gladstone and Home Rule.

Gladstone has silenced the cry of the Conservatives that the Liberals under the lead of Gladstone had no definite policy concerning home rule for Ireland by drafting a complete bill, the adoption of which he will advocate, and upon which the Liberals are expected to unite. The bill gives the proposed Irish Legislature full powers than did the bill of 1885. It contains the Lower and Upper Houses of the Irish Parliament, vests the appointment of the judiciary in the Irish Executive and maintains a larger representation of Ireland in the Imperial Parliament.

The arrangement of this bill at this time is most opportune, as the general election is approaching which will give the home rule measure a chance before the people as a distinct piece of party policy.

INDIANAPOLIS JOURNAL: An attempt is made in some quarters to construe the results of the recent election in this city as an administration defeat, "a rebuke to Harrison," etc. It was nothing of the kind. No municipal campaign was ever conducted on lines so strictly and exclusively local. This is true of both sides, national issues not being referred to by either. If the Republicans had carried the city it could not have been claimed in any proper sense as an administration victory, and their failure to carry it is not an administration defeat. No Democrat who is familiar with the situation claims it as such. There is nothing in the result of the election to justify the claim that Indianapolis is certainly Democratic on national issues. The Republicans carried the city in the last presidential election and there is no reason why they should not carry it in the next one.

CHICAGO JOURNAL: Chauncey M. Depew admits that he is more interested in the New York State canvass this year than in any that has occurred since 1874. The correspondent says that Mr. Depew's eyes fairly glistened with enthusiasm as he chatted about the prospect, and he declared that he was going to put real business and everything else to one side for ten days and take the stump, going into many of the smaller towns in the State. Of recent years Mr. Depew's campaigning has been confined to a few of the larger cities, but he says that if the Republican vote of the interior can be brought out New York State will give a Republican majority such as no Republican has received since General Grant ran for President in 1872.

will continue to make his headquarters at Joliet.

NOW OFFICERS.

At a meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Baptist church last evening Miss

Hickok was elected president, Miss

W. L. Curran, of Virginia, is the president. It is supposed that the followers of the People's Party will pursue the same tactics followed in the F. M. B. A.

State Assembly and attempt to secure control of the organization of the Ali-liance by putting none but members of the new party in charge of the offices.
